$4,000 PARED FROM BUDGET BY COUNCIL

$268,412 Will Be Asked For All Operations For Next Year

LEVY TO PROVIDE MONEY FOR SEWERS

Decrease In Special Assessment Bonds Aid In Reduction

A $268,412.72 budget for the year 1943—$4,075.92 lower than the budget figure for 1942—was adopted by city council Tuesday night at a meeting held in the mayor's office.

The council chamber has been turned over to the air raid wardens for use in proceeding with a first aid course. An air raid control center also is being established in the council room.

In addition to approving the budget, the councilmen approved another emergency piece of legislation, an ordinance creating the position of captain of police and fixing the salary at $169.50 a month. That is $11 a month more than the regular salary of the police captain, who is yet to be named, corresponds with that of the fire captain.

The total anticipated expenditures for 1943 are below the present year's actual and estimated expenses due, principally, to the fact that the legislators were not required to set up funds for sewer needs. A one-mill sewer levy, voted last November and now in effect, eliminates the "ear-marking" of further money for sewer purposes.

Another budget decrease is in the special assessment bonds. Only $350 of the South Broadway street improvement bonds will fall due in '43, whereas a year ago $6,670.63 was set up for special street assessment bonds.

Must Be Approved
The budget, subject to approval by the county budget commission, carries a $104,468.09 general fund requirement for the new year. The city expects to spend $98,838.09 this year, while $95,853.84 was actually spent last year, City Auditor Karl Webster explained.

Larger balances in various funds are principally responsible for the showing of receipts and balances totaling $383,011.66 in the 1943 budget. A balance of approximately $40,000 in the sinking fund is the result of better delinquent tax collections. Then, too, the assessment bonds are practically wiped out.

The police and firemen's salaries under personal service are set up slightly higher, but this has always been the case in recent years, the auditor explains, in anticipation that the wages might be restored to the pre-depression level.

Police salaries for '43 are listed at $12,276 against $11,628 for the

23 NIPPON VESSELS SUNK BY AMERICANS IN THAT WAR ZONE

Latest Victim of Yankee Marksmen Either Cruiser or Destroyer

WASHINGTON, Aug. 19.—A United States submarine has sunk a Japanese cruiser or destroyer in the western Aleutians, the navy announced today, bringing to 23 the total of enemy ships announced as sunk or damaged in that area.

The navy said that conditions made it impossible to determine an exact identification of the ship destroyed.

The sinking was announced in navy department communique No. 108, which follows:

"North Pacific area:

"1. A United States submarine has reported the sinking of a Japanese cruiser or destroyer in the western Aleutian area. Conditions made impossible an exact identification of the type of ship.

"2. This sinking has not been announced in any previous navy department communique."

YANK PILOT SINKS SUB NEAR BRAZIL

Sinking of Five Ships Puts Nation At "Gates of War"

(By Associated Press)
RIO DE JANEIRO, Aug. 19.—A United States pilot bombed and sank one of the Axis submarines lurking off the Brazilian coast after the sinking of five Brazilian ships brought this biggest South American republic to the "gates of war," an official announced today.

The first official word of the sinking came from Commander Ernani A. R. Amaral Pelkoto, federal liaison officer in the state of Rio de Janeiro, who told a crowd gathered before the presidential palace that one of the undersea raiders had been destroyed.

Government press department and other accounts in Brazilian newspapers gave this version of the attack:

The submarine was sighted 50 miles off Brazil's coast by a United States plane piloted by Capt. Jack Lacey. The plane dived, machine-gunning the submarine and forcing it to the surface with bombs when it attempted to submerge.

Scores Direct Hit
The Diario Carioca, quoting authorized sources, said the submarine apparently was damaged in this first attack. The United States plane dived again, this time finishing the submarine with direct bomb hits.

At the same time, radio reports purportedly from British Guiana were heard here saying RAF planes, based on that British South American territory, attacked a second submarine off the northeast coast of South America yesterday, and sighted a third.

These developments came as renewed anti-Axis demonstrations flared in the streets of principal

GIRL SCOUT GROUP MAKES FALL PLANS

The Girl Scout council met yesterday afternoon at the Memorial building to make plans for the fall program. Mrs. Eleanor Gibson will continue as camp director.

Reports were given on the Girl Scout camp session which was held the past few weeks at Camp Merrydale. The new pump and rural mail box added much to the convenience of the camp.

REGISTER WOMEN FOR NURSES' AID

Further registration of women for Nurses Aid classes is being taken at the Salem Red Cross chapter headquarters, second floor of the Memorial building.

Additional applicants are sought although the second class of Nurses Aides has started its initial training.

Eligible women should be between the ages of 18 and 50, inclusive, and have a high school education or equivalent.

MISSION WORKERS ON EXCHANGE SHIP

Rev. Charles and Elsie Matti On Gripsholm, Expected Aug. 25

Rev. Charles and Elsie Matti, Friends missionaries in China, were listed by the U. S. State department as being among the Ohioans who are passengers on the diplomatic exchange ship Gripsholm which is expected to arrive at New York Aug. 25.

They are among the 1,451 Americans and other nationals which the vessel is bringing from the western Pacific area.

Also included in the official passenger list today is Asher Bernard Case of Alliance.

Rev. and Mrs. Matti, well known in Salem and vicinity, are expected to come directly to Damascus after the exchange ship docks to attend the Ohio Yearly meeting of Friends which opens the same day, continuing through Aug. 30.

Rev. Matti is chairman of the China Friends missions. They went to China in 1925 and have been home on two furloughs since that time. Both are graduates of the Cleveland Bible college.

Two other Friends missionaries who have been in the Far East and who are expected to return on the same boat, are Charles DeVol and Miss Freda Girsberger. The official passenger list today failed to include their names, however.

ARMY TAKES OVER MACHINE COMPANY

President Asks Stimson To Act at South Boston, Mass.

(By Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Aug. 19.—President Roosevelt ordered Secretary of War Stimson today to take possession of and operate the plant of the S. A. Woods Machine company at South Boston, Mass., where a management-labor dispute has impeded war production.

The war labor board laid the case before him yesterday for appropriate action.

The company management had refused to comply with a board order that it grant arbitration and maintenance of union membership privileges to the CIO's United Electrical, Radio and Machine Workers.

The plant has orders for production important to the war effort.

It was the second time within a week and the seventh time during the current national emergency that the government had exercised its power to take over a private industry.

Last Friday the President ordered the navy to seize the plant of the General Cable corporation at Bayonne, N. J., after the employees struck in protest against a labor board decision against their demands for a wage increase.

Employees of the Cable company voted unanimously last night for a resolution pledging them not to interrupt production again "for any reason" during the war.

Storm Dieppe Coast; Fight Still Raging

U. S., Canadian, British Troops Make Up Biggest Invasion Force To Date; More Than 1,000 Fighters, Bombers Provide Protecting "Umbrella"

(By The Associated Press)
LONDON, Aug. 19.—United States troops with Canadian, British and fighting French Commandos stormed the French coast on the broad beaches around Dieppe at dawn today, and with tanks and the greatest aerial umbrella ever spread aloft fought on throughout the day against the German defenders.

Despite the unprecedented scope of the attack, the British repeatedly announced that the action was not an invasion intended to create a front in western Europe but was only a raid.

This was supported by the return to Britain during the afternoon of some of the Commandos who had accomplished their mission speedily.

The main battle roared on, however, and the possibilities inherent in the situation increased as night approached.

The constant procession of more than 1,000 United States army, RAF and Royal Canadian Air Force fighters and bombers from British frontline airbases to the battle zone in France suggested that, at least, the great assault might be a test to determine whether such an aerial "big-top" could positively protect a true invasion force all day long.

The planes shuttled to the attack and back for reloading and refueling so quickly that the scene at British air bases recalled the battle of Britain in the fall of 1940.

Despite the great concentration of planes, it was reported reliably that no parachutists were used.

The Americans, carefully chosen volunteers called the Rangers, were the first American fighting men to set foot on German-controlled soil in this war and the first to go into action in Europe since 1918.

Not Full-Fledged Invasion, British Stress

(Although the British repeatedly asserted the action was a Commando raid and not an invasion, the strength and continuing nature of the assault suggested that it was developing into a major operation with unpredictable possibilities.)

Even as the battle thundered on, first units of the Commando force who had speedily accomplished their mission, returned to a British port in gay spirits.

There was no immediate indication how many men returned in the first contingent, nor whether Americans were among them. It was presumed that they constituted the wing of the Allied force which a communique said accomplished its objective and withdrew.

Hour after hour the battle progressed, with the rumble of heavy gunfire and the constant roar of American planes as audible testimony to the scope of the conflict on which Allied headquarters issued terse periodic communique.

Canadians made up the majority of the strong forces that drove across the channel to Dieppe, 50-odd miles from Beach Head, the nearest point in England, and 100 miles from Paris.

Announcements from United States army and Allied combined operations headquarters disclosed that the Americans, British special service troops and the Fighting French all were in action.

The Americans, specially chosen from a host of volunteers as the first American fighting men to set foot on the continent of an embattled Europe since 1917, proudly wore the title "Rangers"—after the famous Rogers' rangers whose bold exploits made history in the French and Indian war of American Colonial days 180 years ago.

First announced fruits of the raid were destruction of a six-run German battery and an ammunition dump by troops who landed on the right flank, accomplished their mission and were reembarbed by the British navy, which ferried all the forces across to France.

On the left flank the Canadians first were repulsed by strong German opposition, but bounced back to carry the beach by assault while their comrades were pushing tanks ashore in the center for the main thrust, which a noon announcement said still was continuing.

The landings were accomplished at every point selected in advance in a carefully-planned, closely secret operation that American officers of all services helped to arrange.

Eagerness to call this a second front, a real invasion, was cooled

'ANY CHILD SHOULD KNOW'

The flip answer that "any child should know" what Prime Minister Churchill and Joseph Stalin talked about in Moscow doesn't answer anything. Obviously, they talked about the war, which is their common problem, but in their own countries and in the United States, furnishing supplies to both countries, everybody wants to know what they said.

The Russians and the British must be at least as confused as Americans about the grand strategy of this war. The head of the most important land combatant finally has met with the head of one of the other three major combatants. But Mr. Stalin never has talked to President Roosevelt. His generals are not acquainted with the generals of the United States and Great Britain. There apparently is nothing more than nominal cooperation between China and its allies, with the possible exception of Russia. The United Nations as a military coalition can make no decisions because it has no common leadership.

It has been obvious since the beginning of Germany's invasion of Russia that Adolf Hitler could bring that adventure to a successful conclusion only if given the advantage of security on the western front. He would have to be forced to fight World War II on two fronts, the tragic mistake of the German militarists of World War I. But in August, 1942, with the war closing its third year, Germany's land position is stronger than it ever was before. France has been destroyed. Russia's resistance is being worn down rapidly. There are at least a dozen compelling reasons why Great Britain and the United States can't do anything about it. Yet, unless something is done about it the war may be won by the Axis. The second front may be opened against Russia in Siberia instead of for Russia in Europe.

There is no doubt that Messrs. Churchill and Stalin had plenty to talk about, but there remains considerable doubt about what they had to say.

THIS IS WAR, TOO

Mayor LaGuardia's sudden announcement to New Yorkers that their use of hot water will be restricted to a few hours in the morning and at night is war, too. It is a step to conserve fuel.

There is nothing glorious or thrilling about using cold instead of hot water—and incidentally the mayor warns that the hot water, itself, will be no more than warm. Cold water, when hot water is wanted, is inconvenient, nothing else.

Perhaps no single privation could be selected to make hot water users feel the impact of war more keenly. Transportation, blackouts, the rubber shortage, sugar rationing—these are bearable in themselves, but with absence of hot water added they may seem worse than they are.

Out here in the security belt, or whatever it's called, where New Yorkers once come in a spirit of roughing it (meanwhile studying the natives for curious mannerisms of speech and dress) there won't be a hot water faucet turned on from now on without an accompanying whimper of pity for the hardy pioneers of the hotel and apartment house wilds in New York City. And if our time comes to suffer, we will be sustained by the realization that New Yorkers suffered first.

80,000,000 MOSLEMS MUST BE RIGHT

There are numerous uplifters in this country who have been telling the wicked British for years exactly how India should be run. They have been having a field day with the current bloodshed, which to them is one more sign that the objective of British Indian policy is confusion.

It would be interesting now to hear their observations on the warning of Mohammed Ali Jinnah, president of the All-India Moslem league, that if the British try to appease Mohandas K. Gandhi they will have to deal with 80,000,000 angry Mohammedans.

Due entirely to the stress that publicity has laid on Mr. Gandhi, few Americans are even aware that he speaks for only one element in the population of India—and may not even be speaking for that element all of the time. The British would be in a terrible mess if they took the splendid advice of their American friends, gave the poor Indians their independence, then discovered too late that in the process they had slighted the rights of 80,000,000 Mohammedans.

NOTWITHSTANDING sudden reversals, upsets and obstacles this day may be one of momentous events. These obstructions, commotions, emotional crises may be precipitated from and upon all phases of life, with the most spectacular reactions in the affectional, romantic, domestic and social contacts. Rash and violent outbursts, temper, turbulence and ungoverned acts and words may incite or exaggerate such conditions, with active opposition from elders or relatives. Nevertheless, the course of true love is likely to move to high culminations.

Those whose birthday it is may be prepared for a year of spectacular adventures, with turmoil, quarrels, and sudden and devastating visitations that must be deemed hectic, passionate and violent. The enmity or vindictive antagonism of relatives or elders may heighten such angry crises. However, it seems as though the most ardent, fiery and ungoverned conduct would not swerve the emotional or sentimental passions.

A child born on this day may be tempestuous, hectic and violent, with strong emotional temperament.

WARNS OF FOOD SHORTAGE

WASHINGTON, Aug. 19.—The United States and the other United Nations are headed straight for an acute food shortage, Chairman Hampton Fulmer (D-S.C.) of the house agriculture committee said today, and nothing is being done about it.

It will come about the end of 1943, the outspoken Carolina farmer predicted in an interview, and "the officials and bureaucrats handling the program now won't do anything about it until it smacks them right in the face."

Fulmer said he based his belief on a growing shortage of farm labor and what he described as an increasing tendency to disregard the problems of the farmer.

Meanwhile, the War Production Board's food requirements committee headed by Secretary of Agriculture Wickard recommended government allocation of meats to butcher shops and other retail outlets to permit equitable distribution of limited supplies.

The recommendation resulted from an unprecedented war demand for meats during a seasonal shortage that developed in several sections of the country, particularly in the east.

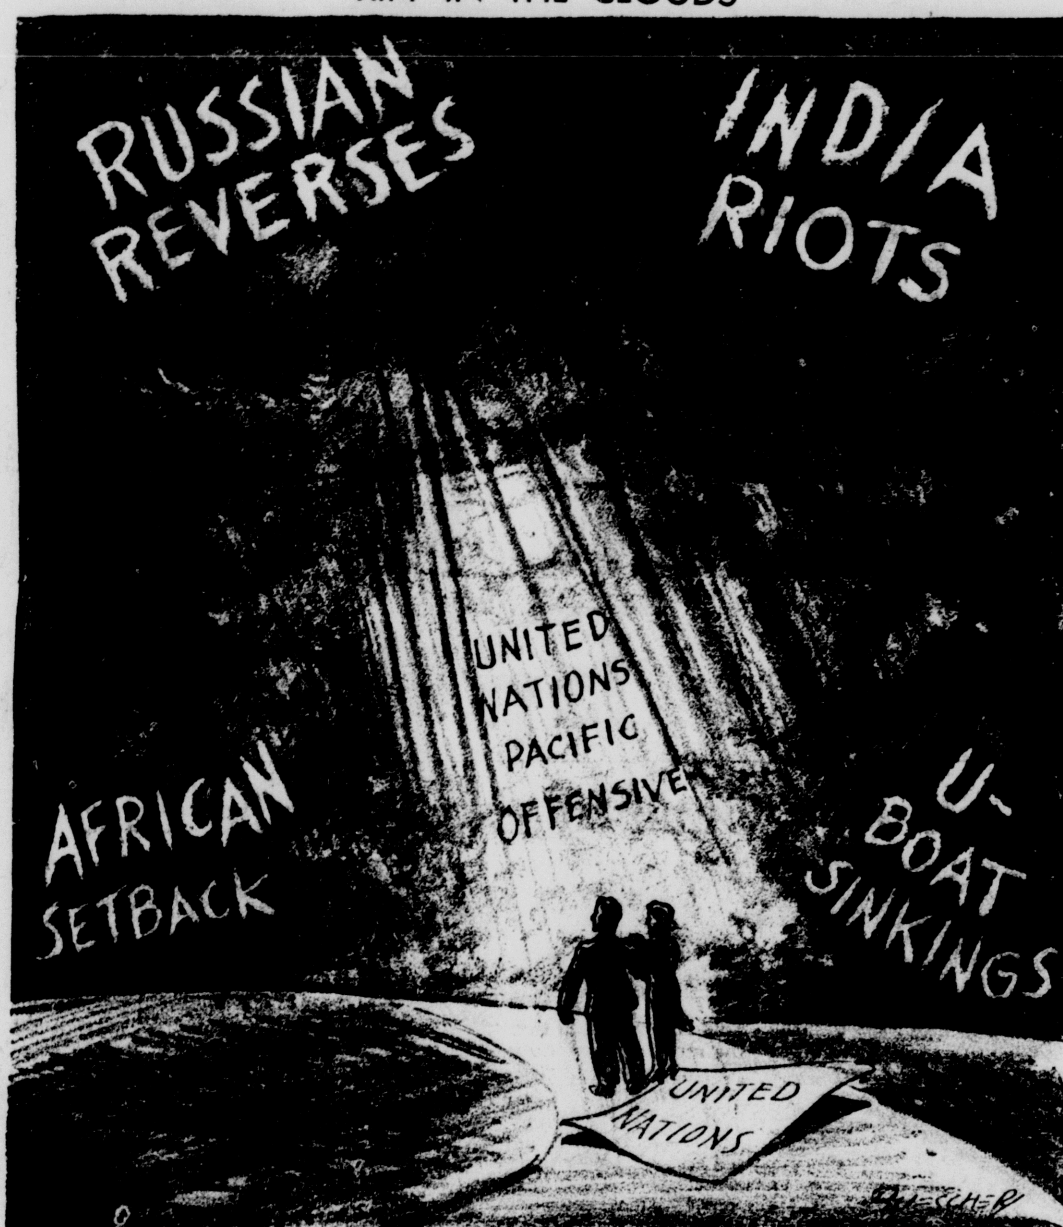

Fulmer asserted that despite governmental pleas for bumper crops to furnish food for the United Nations, the war food program is falling down because farmers simply cannot get the labor they need to raise big crops.

He attributes this condition to the draft and the attractive pay offered by industry.

The only solution he could see, he said, was to boost farmers' income to permit the payment of wages that could compete with off-the-farm pay. To this end, Fulmer said he planned to begin hearings soon on legislation to revise the parity formula designed to give farmers a purchasing power in proportion to that of other groups.

Now that the first flush of hospitality passes, a question arises what to do about visiting royalty. One thought is to fold the newspaper to the help wanted ads, and leave it about in some conspicuous place.

RIFT IN THE CLOUDS

GETTING THE SCHOOL ARMY READY

Another Health Campaign Is In the Offing

By LOGAN CLENDENING, M. D.

THE CHILDREN are getting ready to go to school. They are Democracy's army of the future. It is in order that they have the freedom to carry on that we are going through all this agony.

Just as the army of the fighting forces must be prepared against the danger of bad health, so the army of school children must be prepared so that, as far as possible, poor health will not interfere with their campaign for education.

Dr. Clendening will answer questions of general interest only, and then only through his column.

Every year I advise parents along this line at this season. Every year a new army of youngsters appears to enter school. So I feel it my duty to repeat the advice every year.

The greatest dangers to youth are the contagious diseases. Children have not developed their immunities yet and any germ may lay them low. When a person has lived as long as I have in this vale of germs, he has been exposed to nearly everything in the way of bacterial life and has developed protections. I could go into any epidemic with a good chance of coming out unscathed. I haven't even had a cold for ten years.

But not so the beginning citizen. New-born babies have a passive immunity to most contagions which they get from their mothers. But this wears out at the end of six or eight months. These new-born babies are not exposed to much cross infection. Their milk supply is, or should be, uninfected.

At about six months, as I said, the passive immunity begins to wear off and the individual has to develop active immunity from his own cells. He either does this or active immunity is artificially supplied to him by vaccines.

To show how natural immunity grows year by year: in the days when diphtheria vaccination was not yet done on a large scale, groups of school and preschool children were examined by the Schick test to determine their immunity to diphtheria. This is the way the age groups were reported:

Age 1 year—60 per cent of all individuals susceptible to diphtheria and showed no immunity.

Age 5 years—40 per cent of all individuals susceptible to diphtheria and showed no immunity.

Age 10 years—30 per cent of all individuals susceptible to diphtheria and showed no immunity.

Age 15 years—12 per cent of all individuals susceptible to diphtheria and showed no immunity.

Age 30 years—In city dwellers 5 to 10 per cent susceptible; in rural districts as high as 40 per cent susceptible.

Immunity in Contacts

This increasing immunity is acquired either by having the disease, or by contacts with carriers—playmates, parents, companions—so that you engulf a few germs from time to time and kill them off, thus conditioning your cells to produce antitoxin. Notice how much less protection rural dwellers get; they live where there are few contacts, few carriers.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

I S. I saw in the paper something about Bulgarian belladonna root in the treatment of Parkinson's disease. Where do I get it, and how much do I take?

Answer: Parkinson's disease, or the tremor known as paralysis agitans, has been treated by belladonna for many years. In 1927 a Bulgarian botanist claimed the Bulgarian belladonna root was better than any other and reported a number of cases who obtained astonishing relief. Since then it has been shown that the American root is just as good if properly prepared. But you don't get it, and you don't decide how much you take, because it has many dangerous actions and should be given only under the direction of a physician.

E. H. L.—What is the cause of swollen ankle and black and blue circulation? Is lamb wool and bandage good for same?

Answer: If it is in only one ankle, it probably is varicose veins.

Lamb wool and bandage afford temporary relief.

Guilford Grange Service Flag Now Lists Six Names

WINONA, Aug. 19.—There were about 40 in attendance at the regular meeting of Guilford Grange held at the hall Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Orva Walton and daughter Mary, donated a service flag with six stars to the grange. The six stars are for the boys who are in the service, former members of the grange. The program was: Talk, "My Trip to Whitewood Women's Camp," Mrs. Herman Gray; reading, "The Deacon's Courtship," Mrs. Harold Raley.

Next meeting is inspection and all members are asked to be present.

Gamble Reunion

The Gamble family held its annual gathering Sunday at the farm home of Mr. and Mrs. Homer Gamble and Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Gamble east of Winona.

There were 60 who enjoyed the picnic dinner on the lawn. A short business session followed. Albert Gamble, vice president, had charge of the meeting. These officers were re-elected: Alfred Gamble, president; Mrs. Robert Ward, secretary-treasurer; Albert Gamble, vice president.

The members were from Salem, Alliance, Winona and Adena. The next meeting will be held the third Sunday in August, 1943, at Centennial park, Salem.

The Young People's class of the Methodist church, taught by Edward Jenkins was entertained at his cottage at Seaviken lake Saturday evening. A lunch was served.

The Epworth League of the Methodist church held its regular meeting Sunday evening. Miss Lois Holway gave a talk relating to "Fellowship of Reconciliation." The group then was entertained at the home of Miss Esther Jean Mar-bew.

The Friends Discussion Group met at the home of Edward F. Stratton, Salem Sunday evening. Some from here attended. The next meeting will be held the evening of Sept. 9 at Clarkson French's home.

The Friendly Supper Group will not meet this week because of the Wilbur Friends picnic to be held Saturday afternoon at Centennial park. A basket dinner will be

At Yankee Lake

Hal McIntyre, who brings his famous orchestra to Yankee lake Sunday for a one night engagement, presents an outstanding array of vocal and instrumental stars.

Featured with the McIntyre band are the four Lytle sisters, a vocal quartet heard over the entire network of the Columbia Broadcasting system for the last two years, and Terry Allen, baritone soloist, who formerly sang with Paul Whiteman, Harry James, and Will Bradley. Before he organized his own band over a year ago, Hal McIntyre played first alto saxophone with Glenn Miller's orchestra.

Del Casino and his orchestra have been booked to play for dancers at Yankee lake on Saturday night and for the matinee dance Sunday afternoon. Manager Paul Jurko announced today that Jimmy Dorsey and his orchestra with vocalists Bob Eberly and Helen O'Connell will appear at Yankee lake in the near future.

$4,000 IS SLICED FROM CITY BUDGET

$268,412 Will Be Asked For All Operations For Next Year

present year, and firemen's wage requirements for the new year at $22,618 compared to $21,186 at the present time. Other department expenses likewise are anticipated higher.

The budget is not a whole lot different than the '42 draft, Auditor Webster points out, the 1943 figures being purely estimates.

The Figures A recapitulation of the new budget shows:

Expenditures General fund—$104,468.09. Street maintenance—$20,000. Gasoline tax—$18,000. Waterworks—$75,000. Bond retirement—$50,571. Special assessments—$373.63.

Receipts General fund—$105,517.38. Street maintenance—$3,982.40. Gasoline tax—$18,067.03. Waterworks—$115,028.40. Bond retirement—$96,400.24. Special assessments—$13,016.21.

Following council approval last night of an ordinance establishing the city's new police ranks, Clerk Paul Myers was instructed to ask the municipal civil service commission to schedule an examination for police department members.

One of the six patrolmen in the department is due for an appointment to the newly-created post by Safety Director C. E. Phillips. The ordinance was passed as an emergency measure upon a motion by Councilmen Charles Rheutant and Arthur Haskins.

Asked By Mayor Creation of a captaincy was asked by Mayor R. R. Johnson and the safety director as early as last winter as a means of placing an officer in charge at night.

Two pleas for additional fund appropriations were sanctioned last night by council members.

These included a request by Arch Wentz, water committee chairman, for a $10,000 transfer to take care of waterworks department needs for the remainder of the year, and a $400 appropriation sought by Fire Chief Vincent Malloy for the purchase of new fire hydrants.

Wentz explained that an original $15,000 waterworks appropriation was exhausted, pointing out that "operations have been satisfactory for the first seven months of 1942."

Chief Malloy said that four or five new hydrants are needed and that only $40 remained in that fund. They cost $76.45 each.

An ordinance transferring the $10,000 from the waterworks fund to the waterworks sub fund, maintenance, as asked by Wentz, was approved afterwards. Authorization to draft a measure on the $400 request was given.

State of Ohio vs. Fred Brown: defendant appeared, defendant may be released on his own recognizance of $1,000.

New Cases George W. Daniels vs. Lake County Memorial Park Association, Painesville, O.; petition to set aside mortgage deed and promissory note.

Henry H. Brisker vs. June E. Brisker, East Palestine; petition for divorce; adultery.

Union Savings & Loan Co. vs. Frederick L. Shannon, et al, Wellsville; action for money only in the sum of $77.03.

Morris Rosen, doing business as Rosen Market, vs. Frederick L. Shannon, et al, Wellsville; action for money only in the sum of $45.

by repeated BBC broadcasts stressing the "limited and temporary" character of the action and declaring "it had nothing to do with military decisions which have been taken in Moscow recently."

The Germans, however, made no attempt to belittle the scope of the assault, and claimed they had thrown even their naval forces into the bitter conflict.

For the Canadians, thirsting for a fight for months or years, it was the first real action against the enemy.

For the Fighting French, whose Commando organization was disclosed only on Bastille day last July 14, it was the first time they have set foot on the soil of their native land since the German conquest of 1940.

Great Host of Planes Covers Vicious Raid Observers on the British shore said there were more aircraft than ever before seen and heard over the channel as bombers and fighters shuttled across to assault or recede. Indicating the size of the present operation it was recalled on at least one previous occasion 1,000 fighters participated in a sweep across the channel.

The raid first announced at 6:45 a. m. (1:45 a. m. Eastern War Time) was still continuing at noon when a supplementary communique was issued.

After that, as the mists burned away and a fine, fair day developed, persons on the British shore still could hear the heartening sounds of offensive battle.

Informed quarters cautioned, however, that for all the broad participation of troops

"Fight! Work! and SAVE!"

A War Message on WAR BONDS from the President of the United States

"....The American people know that if we would raise the billions which we now need to pay for the war and at the same time prevent a disastrous rise in the cost of living, we shall have to double and more than double the scale of our savings.

"Every dime and dollar not vitally needed for absolute necessities should go into WAR BONDS and STAMPS to add to the striking power of our armed forces.

"If these purchases are to have a material effect in restraining price increases they must be made out of current income.

"In almost every individual case they should be big enough to mean rigid self-denial, a substantial reduction for most of us in the scale of expenditure that is comfortable and easy for us.

"We cannot fight this war, we cannot exert our maximum effort, on a spend-as-usual basis.

"We cannot have all we want if our soldiers and sailors are to have all they need."

Newsies' Third Round Hopes Rise As Cigars Bow, 9-1

SAM PRIDON LEADS ASSAULT AS GREGG HURLS SIX-HITTER

News Must Beat Phalanx Tomorrow To Capture Round Honors

As the result of a victory by the Carroll club last night, the Salem News team must defeat only the Phalanx tomorrow evening to win the third round title and bar a third team from the playoff for the city championship. The Rees won the first round.

The Carrolls bunched all their runs in two spurges to chalk up a 9-1 win over the once-beaten United Cigars outfit. A two run rally in the fourth and a seven run outburst in the fifth overcame a one run advantage gained by the Cigars in an earlier round.

"Sarge" Gregg returned to the rubber for the Carrolls for the first time this year and turned in a neat six-hit pitching performance. Orrie Wright pitched for the Cigars in the absence of Dale Ritchie who is recovering from a tonsillotomy.

Wright was wilder than a March hare and it was this weakness that gave the Carrolls several unearned runs. Sammy Pridon was the spearhead of an eight hit assault upon Wright as he hammered out three blows in as many trips to the home dish. Walt Holmes had a big part in the attack also, making two hits in three times up.

Wright Leads Attack

Wright paced the Cigars' assault against the Sarge. The youthful hurler had a perfect night at the plate as he matched Pridon's efforts. No other member of the Cigar crew was able to solve Gregg's slants for more than one blow.

Ralph Phillips will probably take the mound for the News tomorrow with Bill Bennett throwing them in for the Phalanx.

Jacksons and the Saxons battled to a 4-4 tie in the other contest on the card in a game halted by darkness after seven innings of play. Ray McGaffick, Jackson's hurler, allowed but four hits as his mates hammered 11 off Marty Pauline.

Hahn led the 11-hit drive, collecting three hits in as many trips up while Dick Lantz, the best young hitter in the loop, "Doggie" Scullion and Ray McGaffick chipped in with two each.

The Saxons scored all their four runs in the initial frame while Jacksons tallied in clusters of two coming in the second and sixth frames. The game will be played off at a later date just to keep the record books straight.

Under Ohio Skies

AS TOLD BY THE CONSERVATION DIVISION

CHET LAABS HELPS KEEP BROWNIES IN A. L. UPPER BERTH

Fighting Spirit Instilled By Pilot Luke Sewell Overcomes Injuries

ST. LOUIS—The Browns don't belong in the first division! But the team is there, nevertheless, because it has no respect for its betters.

It's there because of Luke Sewell, the Alabama gentleman who is, without doubt, the manager of the year.

It's there because of Vernon Stephens, the kid shortstop, and Don Gutteridge, the Cardinal castoff.

It's there because of a sensational home run spree by Chet Laabs and the ability of the team as a whole to wallopp the ball out of the park.

It's there because of unexpected pitching.

And it's there in spite of injuries, misfortunes and the disappointing work of several veterans.

To take the worst first, here are some reasons why the Browns seem out of place in fourth place.

Harold Gilt, who once hit 34 home runs, a record for third-basemen, has lost the knack. George McQuinn, the flashy-fielding first-baseman, has been batting erratically. Bad luck has dogged Walter Judnich and lately he has been hobbling around in center field with an injured leg.

Muncie's Slips

Pitcher Bob Muncie, who was hopeful of winning 20 games, took the season's opener and has scarcely done anything since because of injuries. Frankie Hayes hurt his knee in mid-July and was out a month, putting such a burden on Rick Ferrell that his catching suffered from overwork.

Nothing, however, better epitomizes the Browns' spirit in overcoming such hardships than "Old Man" Sewell catching a few games to relieve Ferrell, and Luke's bruising encounter with Tommy Henrich of the Yankees in a play at the plate.

Out a country mile, Henrich tried football tactics and charged full force into the Brownie manager. Sewell was knocked sprawling but held on to the ball. He came up from his forced dive in fighting mood but the umpires prevented trouble.

With an aggressive manager like that, the Browns have refused to take it on the chin. They've developed confidence, determination and disregard for the odds against them.

The spark the Browns needed to explode them into the first division was provided by Laabs.

Laabs Changed Stance

The stocky outfielder changed his stance at the plate and began ripping the cover off the ball. He hit seven home runs in eight games and singlehandedly, practically, battered the team into fourth place, an elevated position it hasn't occupied this late in the season for many years.

Stephens and Gutteridge have been a life-saving combination for the Browns.

Young Stephens, only 300 hitting regular, has done more than just fill a war-damaged gap at shortstop. Gutteridge, playing a new position, took to second like a Charley Gehring and, in fact, he is well on the way to beating Gehring's record of only 17 errors in a season. Don's speed has set the pace for a lot of daring base-running by the Browns.

The team's improved record over last year, when it finished in a tie for sixth, has been reflected by the attendance. Last season the Browns drew 180,000 paid customers for their home games, a mark they passed by 13,000 on August 3.

During the first half of 1942 the Agricultural Marketing Administration bought more than 825 million pounds of pork.

BULLDOGS BEATEN TWICE BY REDCATS

Two Red Cat hurlers allowed the Bulldogs only three hits in a double bill as the Red Cats defeated the Bulldogs, 7-0 and 15-8 at Centennial park yesterday. In the opener the Bulldogs scored eight runs on one hit.

The first game was a badly played one although the Bulldogs got only one blow off Miller. He was free with walks and his infield pulled seven errors behind him to allow the Bulldogs eight runs.

Ritchey and Culberson led the attack with three hits each in the first while Crawford got the lead off. Ritchie also led the attack in the nightcap when P. Cain blanked the Bulldogs on two hits.

The Red Cats will face the East End Indians next Tuesday at the park.

Seen from the port hole of a Coast Guard escort vessel is part of a con-voiy headed across the Atlantic with war supplies for our far flung war fronts. The Atlantic is regarded by many experts as the most important front; for it is vital to the war effort of the United Nations that nothing interrupt the flow of material from the U. S.

TOUGH U.S. RANGERS READY FOR BATTLE

American Troops Training For Weeks For Work With Commandos

Rangers, one of America's most romantic fighting outfits who, under Robert Rogers, stalked northern America in the French and Indian wars.

Like them, the new American rangers have been taught to kill expertly and silently with their knives and bare hands as well as with guns and grenades.

They are as much at home on sea as on land.

Just to show them what a trained ranger is expected to do, their British instructors stalked a deer in the forest and when the stag was surrounded a big Scot leaped upon him and killed him with a knife.

A sentry's throat can be slit in the same, silent way.

On my visit I roamed with them in a collapsible canvas boat to landing on a beach where tracer bullets from a British Bren gun were spewing so close to the gun-wales you almost were able to reach out your hand to them.

Close To Bullets
Land mines and grenades splattered us with mud and water. Rifle tracer bullets singled by so close that one punctured a mess kit slung from a ranger's belt.

Earlier in their training, a hand grenade had landed, fuse smoking, in one ranger boat. Private Clayton Schooley, 22, of Musking, Mich., picked up the sizzling bomb with a shout of "overboard!" flung it into the water.

He didn't know its explosive charge had been extracted.

Wrestling (dark alley style) and Ju Jitsu were after-dinner pastimes at the camp I visited. A man out of condition was a candidate for the hospital if he joined the fun.

Every ranger was a volunteer from the United States forces in Britain eager for action—felt they got before the enemy first their steel.

Most of the original rangers were westerners but they also included lion-tamer Corp. James Haines, 29, of Lexington, Ky., who worked with Frank Buck and thinks that working with the rangers "ain't no different."

GERMAN RESERVES POURING INTO DON

While the Germans gained in a Don bend sector, three vain attacks were cited in which they lost four tanks and more than 300 men.

Southwest of Stalingrad, Red army patrols were active overnight and one was credited with the destruction of seven Nazi supply trucks, a searchlight installation and two anti-aircraft guns behind the German line.

Fighting flamed again on the Bryansk front southwest of Moscow. The information bureau said a Soviet artillery battery repulsed eight attacks, wiped out a river crossing and killed at least 500 Germans.

Midnight reports indicated a resurgence of Nazi effort along both arms of a pincer groping toward Stalingrad and the Volga, while the Red army counterattacked in the Krasnodar sector and stood off assaults in the Pyatigorsk area of the Caucasus.

Already wedged into Russian positions in one sector of the Don bend front, the Germans massed large formations to strike elsewhere southeast of Kletskaya and forced a Russian unit to retreat, the Soviet information bureau announced.

LONDON LISTS LOSS OF TWO MORE SHIPS

LONDON, Aug. 19.—The anti-aircraft cruiser Cairo and the destroyer Foresight were sunk during the recent convoy operations in the Mediterranean, the admiralty announced today.

Previous the sinking of the aircraft carrier Eagle and the cruiser Manchester. The four ships were the total warship losses for the British in the extensive convoy operations to supply and reinforce Malta, the admiralty said.

The communiqué said the admiralty would not divulge the number of ships in the convoy or the number of ships which arrived at Malta.

The Cairo, completed in 1919, an old 4,200-ton cruiser which had been rearmed in 1939 for anti-aircraft duty. She carried a normal crew of 400 men.

The Foresight, completed in 1935, was 1,350-ton destroyer capable of better than 36 knots.

The admiralty said it was natural that in such a hazardous operation "some losses were suffered in the convoy."

The communiqué said that at least 66 Axis aircraft were certainly destroyed during the fight over the convoy.

The British lost eight aircraft, but four of the pilots were saved.

Warns Against Shooting
LISBON, Aug. 19.—Sheriff George Hayes today issued a warning against promiscuous target shooting.

He reported that boys apparently had used a rifle to shoot glass insulators on poles along the Erie railroad between Lisbon and Leetonia yesterday.

Another marksman narrowly missed hitting a passing automobile near West Point Tuesday when the bullet went wide of a target.

Bridges Guarded
COLUMBUS, Aug. 19.—Uniformed guards now patrol state owned bridges across the Ohio river. Ray Walker, secretary of the state bridge commission, announced. Because West Virginia's boundary extends to the low-water mark on the Ohio side of the river it was necessary for the panhandle state to waive a law prohibiting non-residents from carrying firearms inside its borders.

Two Are Slain In Elyria Gun Fight
Patrolman, Prisoner Die, Revealing Murder of Young Woman

(By Associated Press)
CLEVELAND, Aug. 19.—Seven men and five women were held today for questioning in the sordid beating death of a 28-year-old woman which was revealed by a gun battle that killed an Elyria policeman and Nathaniel Spurlie, Cleveland vice figure.

The 12 captives, including Spurlie's 20-year-old wife, were described by police as his associates in a career which included vice, drugs, thievery and finally homicide.

The three violent deaths climaxed Cleveland's "jitterbug" vice cases in which Spurlie, a Negro, was the convicted key character in the debauchery of four white girls.

Dead, besides Spurlie, were Doris McConnell, 28 and white, recently arrested on a vice charge, and Patrolman Howard Taft of the Elyria police department.

Miss McConnell's nude and battered body was found stuffed into the trunk compartment of Spurlie's coupe when Patrolman Taft and a partner investigated an Elyria traffic collision involving the coupe last night.

Dr. S. C. Ward, Lorain county coroner, said the woman had been "badly beaten" from eight to 20 hours earlier, perhaps with a whip.

Apparently Quarreled
Detective Sergeant Martin P. Cooney, chief of the homicide squad, said Spurlie and Miss McConnell had apparently quarreled in the rooms over Spurlie's Cleveland night club and later at a house operated by Spurlie.

Spurlie was one of 12 men sentenced last April in the "jitterbug" cases, which involved teen-age white girls, frequenters of Negro night clubs.

TWO ARE SLAIN IN ELYRIA GUN FIGHT

CLEVELAND, Aug. 19.—Seven men and five women were held today for questioning in the sordid beating death of a 28-year-old woman which was revealed by a gun battle that killed an Elyria policeman and Nathaniel Spurlie, Cleveland vice figure.

Miss McConnell's nude and battered body was found stuffed into the trunk compartment of Spurlie's coupe when Patrolman Taft and a partner investigated an Elyria traffic collision involving the coupe last night.

Dr. S. C. Ward, Lorain county coroner, said the woman had been "badly beaten" from eight to 20 hours earlier, perhaps with a whip.

Apparently Quarreled
Detective Sergeant Martin P. Cooney, chief of the homicide squad, said Spurlie and Miss McConnell had apparently quarreled in the rooms over Spurlie's Cleveland night club and later at a house operated by Spurlie.

Spurlie was one of 12 men sentenced last April in the "jitterbug" cases, which involved teen-age white girls, frequenters of Negro night clubs.

He served two days of a nine-month sentence, then was released because of an appeal from the conviction. On June 9 he and Miss McConnell were arrested along with another white woman, identified as Spurlie's wife, on charges of occupying and operating a vice resort. The cases were to have been heard next Friday.

The Cleveland vice figure opened fire on Patrolman Taft as he was being taken to police headquarters last night after his car was involved in a collision with another operated by an Elyria woman.

Patrolman Don Andrews, who was being taken to his home by Taft when the latter was directed to investigate the collision, gave this account of the shootings:

Taft started to drive Spurlie's car to police headquarters, with Spurlie beside him, while Andrews followed in the police cruiser. After driving a short way, Taft stopped to straighten a fender damaged in the collision, and Spurlie also got out and took the ignition key.

Refuses to Yield Key
Refusing at first to surrender the key, Spurlie then walked to the car as if to get in, but pulled a .45 caliber revolver from the automobile and fired three shots into Taft's chest and stomach.

Falling to the street, Taft returned fire, emptying all six chambers of his service revolver.

Andrews, unarmed, ran to the other side of Spurlie's car to grab him from behind. One shot fired at Andrews missed, and the Negro was killed outright by Taft's bullets. Andrews then took Taft to the hospital where he died an hour and a half later.

The slain patrolman, married and father of one child, had been a member of the police department since last Nov. 15.

Discovery of Miss McConnell's body was made after Spurlie's car was taken to police headquarters. Coroner Ward said death resulted from a brain hemorrhage caused by a severe beating.

LISBON YOUTH WITH RAF TO BROADCAST

LISBON, Aug. 19.—Paul Kuhns son of Mr. and Mrs. George Kuhns, Wellsview rd., a member of the British Royal Air Force, will be heard in a broadcast from the American Eagle club in London Saturday evening from 8 to 8:30, Eastern War time.

Mr. and Mrs. Kuhns were notified of the program by the British Broadcasting company, which stated the Mutual Broadcasting System would carry the program in the United States, whereby American Eagles in England may speak briefly to relatives in the United States.

Kuhns, a civilian pilot, enlisted in the RAF several months ago, and after completing a course of intensive training in this country, was transferred to England as a full-fledged member of the American Eagle Squadron.

urging a general strike in the war-essential aluminum industry. They were described by their leader as displeased with a WLB decision which denied them a wage increase on the grounds they already had been given an increase of more than 15 per cent since Jan. 1, 1941.

CIO officials said members of their union would remain away from their jobs at the Reynolds Metal company in Louisville, Ky., until granted an election by the WLB or some other federal agency.

Joseph D. Cannon, CIO regional director, said the work stoppage had shut down four of the Reynolds plants, which make aluminum parts for airplanes. He said the men left their jobs when a CIO leader was fired while soliciting members for the union.

The labor situation took on international aspect in the action of Dutch seamen and officers tying up Netherlands shipping on the east and west coasts after four months of negotiations with their government.

Specific demands are for 60 and 20 per cent increases, respectively, on the present seamen's basic wage of $40 monthly and on $120 basic wages for first mates. Other demands are for an eight-hour day, a 50 per cent boost in overtime pay, 42 days' rest a year and establishment of a reserve fund to protect the seamen from a post-war slump.
